

MAR-LU-RIDGE SATURDAY RETREAT SERIES

October 22, 2011- May 19, 2012.

9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

October 22, 2011 “What Jesus Was Dying To Tell You” Find out why Jesus spoke in parables; what Jesus thought about religion and politics; why he was suspicious of money; his greatest temptations; and what he believed was the future of humanity.

PRESENTER – Dr. Scott W. Gustafson, Author, Lecturer, Herndon, VA

November 5, 2011 “Called to Ponder Mystery,” an Advent Retreat

An exploration of the many meanings of Advent through scripture and other writings, liturgy and hymns, prayer and meditation. Christ has come; Christ will come again; God among us – Emmanuel.

PRESENTER – Dr. Wayne L. Wold, Author, Composer, Associate Professor of Music at Hood College and College Organist AAGO

February 11, 2011 “For the Beginner: a First Spiritual Retreat”

.... an introduction for first-timers and other beginners, who may come to understand why spiritual retreats are the life blood for many Christians.

PRESENTER – Dr. Connie Devilbiss, College Professor, Author and Retreat Leader

March 10, 2012 “Becoming Who You Are: exploring the fruits of the Spirit,” a

Lenten Retreat. Fruits – love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control, are the result of a Spirit-filled life, which is open to all of us who then can become the persons we were meant to be.

PRESENTER – Dr. Tom Williamsen, Composer, Pastor, Gloria Dei Luth Church, Arnold, MD

April 21, 2012 “Unlock The Power of Singing In Your Congregation!”

Singing is good for the body and for the soul. Rick will teach ways to get old and young singing during worship and at other church gatherings. Singing should be fun, energizing and a reflection of the culture and history of the congregation. This will be a highly participatory event. You don't need to be a good singer or know how to read music. PRESENTER – Rev. Rick Hill, Author, Composer, Recording Artist, Pastor a retreat to prepare a realistic “Advance” to a healthy discipleship. An examination of a toxic veneration: of the Bible (Fundamentalism); of the ordained ministry (clericalism); of behavior (moralism). The use of historical roots will provide effective antidotes.”

May 19, 2012 “Poisonous Faith: Disinfection and Prevention ,”

PRESENTER – Dr. Eric W. Gritsch, Prof. Emeritus, Gettysburg Seminary, Author, Lecturer

$30 PER RETREAT INCLUDES LUNCH. Overnight accommodations available. Register now – pay upon arrival.

How to register - emails: MLR@Mar-Lu-Ridge.org; Ldrasmus@comcast.net, call 1 800 238 9974 or Mail.

Name _____ Email _____ Phone _____

Address _____

Mar-Lu-Ridge Camp & Retreat Center, 3200 Mar-Lu-Ridge Rd, Jefferson, MD. 21755